Don't miss the region's most ghoulish Halloween Festival!
There's plenty of safe, scary entertainment for the entire family.

In October, when the sun goes down on Tweetsie's Wild West Adventure, trick-or-treaters of all ages experience chills, thrills and a frighteningly good time. Hop aboard the Ghost Train and join engineer Casey Bones and his crew for a journey into the darkness. Tour the Haunted House, Creepy Carnival Kid's Zone, Tweetsie Palace Spooktacular, and The Boneyard! It's a ghoulish good time. Expect the unexpected—and expect to have fun!

Ticket Exchange Policy

- Due to the popularity of this event, a limited number of guests are admitted each night, so advance purchase of tickets is recommended.
- There are no refunds on tickets. We will exchange tickets for another night if the tickets have not expired and if it is a night that has not been sold out.
- If you are a Golden Rail Season Pass holder, come by or call the Ticket Office in advance to pick up your tickets.
- For mail order tickets, we need at least two weeks advance notice in order to mail; otherwise, your tickets will be held for you at the Ticket Office.
- Please keep your tickets in a safe place—lost tickets cannot be replaced.

WARNING:

SOME OF THESE ATTRACTIONS ARE NOT INTENDED FOR SCAREDY CATS

Some attractions at the Ghost Train Halloween Festival may be too intense for young children. Parents should judge whether an attraction is unsuitable for children. Tweetsie Railroad is not responsible for any adverse reactions to the attractions.

- Young children should avoid the Ghost Train, Haunted House and Freaky Forest.
- Persons with heart conditions or who are sensitive to explosions or loud noise should avoid the Ghost Train and Haunted House.
- Persons prone to motion sickness should avoid the Black Hole and some amusement rides.
- Persons with asthma should avoid the Haunted House and Freaky Forest.
- Persons with sensitivity to strobelights should avoid the Ghost Train, Freaky Forest, and the Haunted House.

Enjoy a GHOULISH good time!
